

Prairie company plans expansion

EAST PRAIRIE — Residents in the immediate vicinity of West Main Street were represented at Thursday night's City Council meeting by Pete Ward, who presented a petition signed by residents.

The petition protested the construction of a lumber yard by East Prairie Lumber Company on a vacant lot adjoining the railroad right-of-way.

Ward said residents were objecting to the lumber yard because, in their opinion, it would create a fire hazard, since gasoline storage tanks were located across the railroad tracks. It would also be unsightly on Main Street and could easily become a refuge for disreputable persons if it was not fenced in, ward said.

Mayor A. L. Weaver told Ward it was his understanding that the company plans to construct a building on the site and that the lot is not intended to be used for open storage. City Manager Robert Kakac is to check on the matter and report to the council.

Installation of 1,000 water meters received recently will begin in two weeks according to Kakac, who informed the council that billing equipment and someone to read the meters would be needed upon completion of meter installation. The council discussed purchasing or leasing an electronic billing machine which could also be used for other city business. No action was taken and Kakac was instructed to look into the matter further.

The council, upon recommendation of City Attorney Fielding Potashnick, agreed to enter into an association with other area cities interested in purchasing the natural gas line and distribution center from the Arkansas-Missouri

Gas Company of Blytheville, Ark. The city will be represented at a meeting Monday night in Sikeston.

Lloyd Hogan, chairman of the Industrial Committee, informed the council that Prairie Manufacturing Company has completed transactions for the Watson Tractor Aids Company, property near the east city limits and is presently completing renovation of the buildings. Hogan said that with the completion of the remodeling and installation of equipment an estimated 80 to 100 more jobs will be open within the next year by the company. The company, which manufactures men's and boys' pants, has been in East Prairie over 20 years and is expanding its operations but will retain its present building on South Washington Drive.

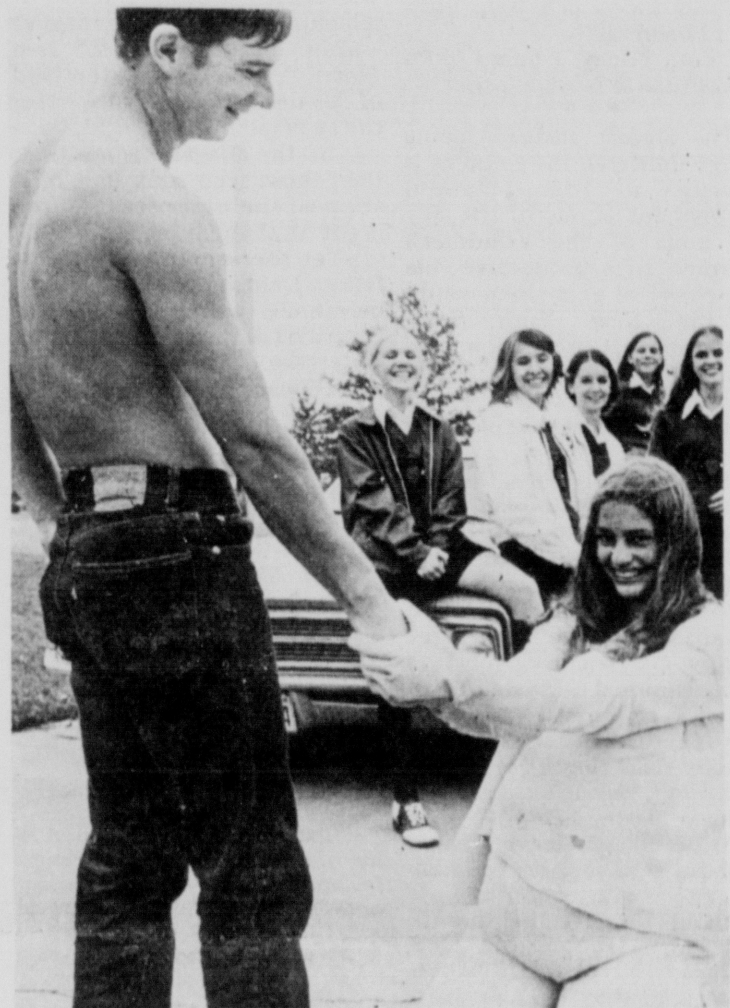

The council approved the rezoning of lots one through seven in block nine of Folk Avenue, from residential to commercial after no objections were voiced at a public hearing held in conjunction with the council meeting. James O'Dell owns the lots.

Kakac told the council that city employees had selected a hospital-life insurance plan and the council voted to pay half of the monthly cost which will be in the amount of $384.57.

A request from Clarence Summerfield that he be allowed to put out boxes for advertisement from local stores over the city was approved, providing Summerfield has the property owners' approval.

Kakac told the council that the contractor for the new P. N. Hirsch store had indicated that company would like to install drive-over curb and guttering along either side of the store now

Peppers beware

Today is "vegetable day" in Sikeston, and all of the Red and Green Peppers in town are on the loose. Activities started at about 6 a.m. with impromptu parades all over town by Green Pepper initiates of the Sikeston High School booster organization wearing other than normal clothing and performing things that seem unnatural for high school girls. One section of the big group formed on Wakefield Street before starting to school (top photo), while Debbie Schuette was made to turn the tables on Mark Murphy by proposing to him on her knees. A parade through town is planned after school today.

7 officers promoted

City Manager Jim Huff announced today the promotion of seven Sikeston police officers.

Huff said the promotions were based on evaluation of job performance, performance on written examinations and recommendations by Police Chief Leon Culp.

Sgt. Thurman Burns and Cpl. Walter Wilson have been promoted to the rank of lieutenant and Cpl. Charles Sherrard and patrolman Richard Couch have been promoted to sergeant.

Patrolmen Marshall Moore, Jesse Redd and Joe Seaborn have been promoted to corporal.

Mayor Frank Ferrell announced Thursday that city engineer Bill Whitlock will be appointed acting city manager to replace Jim Huff, who resigned as city manager at a special meeting of the City Council Wednesday night.

Police were called Thursday night to the Singer Co. store at Kingsway Plaza Mall where someone had shot four holes into the windshield of a service truck with a BB gun.

An investigation is continuing.

Sheriff requests dispatcher

BENTON — Sheriff John Dennis appeared Thursday before the Scott County Court to request help in hiring another dispatcher for the county jail.

Dennis, who is asking small incorporated cities to donate money to help pay a dispatcher, said this would give the cities at least 75 per cent more protection.

The county presently provides for three men to work as dispatchers.

The County Court agreed to furnish a truck and two men to pick up bags of trash along county roads after Magistrate Lloyd Briggs requested such help.

C & S Ford Tractor Inc. of Sikeston was awarded a contract to provide a tractor backhoe and loader after its low bid of $18,492 was accepted.

Other bids included: Bangert Ford Tractor Sales of Jackson, $18,785, and Kearbey Ford Tractor Co. of Poplar Bluff, $18,695.

The court agreed to help buy an ambulance at a cost of approximately $3,500 to the county.

The ambulance will be stationed in Chaffee.

Presiding Judge Les Lankford said money spent out of the general revenue, revenue sharing and bridge and road funds for 1973 is way below what they had been budgeted.

Essex man found dead

ESSEX — The body of Luther Boone, 62, of Essex was found about 11 p.m. Thursday on a farm about one and one-half miles southeast of Essex.

He had been missing since Thursday afternoon. His body was found beside his pickup truck where he apparently died of natural causes, according to Stoddard County Coroner Ray Rainey. Boone had a history of heart condition and was a diabetic.

Friends of Boone and civil defense personnel from Dexter conducted the search. The body is at the Watkins and Sons Funeral Home in Dexter.

Puxico man killed in crash

PUXICO — A Puxico man was killed and another man was injured in a head-on collision Thursday night near Puxico, bringing this year's fatalities in the Southeast Missouri highway patrol area to 99, compared with 118 deaths at this time last year.

David Russell Wilson, 23, died instantly at 7:45 p.m. Thursday when his car crossed the center line and collided with a pickup truck driven by Jerry Rogers, 32, of Puxico six miles north of Puxico on Highway 51.

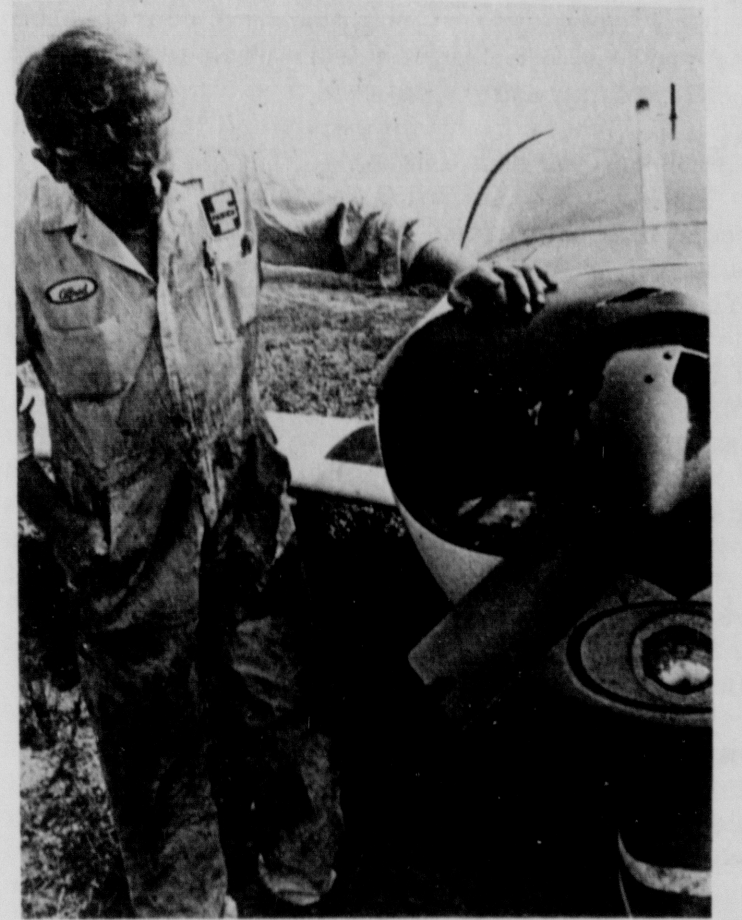

Rogers received serious injuries and was taken to Lucy Lee Hospital in Poplar Bluff.

Forced landing

A routine business flight ended abruptly Thursday with a bumpy landing in a field for a Sikeston businessman and a passenger. Jack Frost, owner of Jack Frost Discount, and Louis Fehr, a St. Louis-based salesman, had just taken off from the Sikeston airport when the propeller on their aircraft shared off on one side. Frost, the pilot, said he was able to glide the plane in for a landing beside a soybean field behind Fabick Brothers Equipment Co., 912 S. Main St. Fabick mechanic Alfred Baker (right photo) witnessed the incident from the machine where he was working (far left in top picture). He said he heard a loud noise and saw a piece of propeller fly off the plane. No one was injured and the only damage to the plane came from vibrations in the engine after the prop broke.

Scott City man draws 3 years

BENTON — Rufus Roy Sanford Jr. of Scott City was sentenced to three years in custody of the State Department of Corrections Thursday in Circuit Court for possession of a roach clip device used for smoking marijuana. Judge Marshall Craig instructed that he be given credit for 145 days already spent in jail.

Following Sanford's plea of guilty, two other charges of stealing were dismissed.

Prosecuting Attorney Jim Moore said federal charges have been brought against Sanford on one of the charges for stealing personal property from St. Louis-Southwestern Railway Lines at Scott City.

After pleading guilty to writing a $4,100 bad check to SeMo Motor Co. on May 24, 1972, and a $20 bad check to Fred's Package Store on Sept. 28, 1972, Maurice Thompson of Sikeston received a suspended two-year jail sentence and was placed on supervised probation for three years.

James Hopper was given a suspended one-year jail sentence and placed on probation for two years after pleading guilty to the strong-arm robbery of Sterling Duncan on May 20. Conditions of Hopper's probation are that he obey the law, pay court costs and refrain from drinking intoxicating beverages.

A felonious assault charge against Art Garner for an assault on Joseph M. O'Grosky was transferred to New Madrid County on a change of venue request by the defendant.

Special Judge William Ragland of New Madrid was appointed to hear the charges against Walter Hyde of rape and attempted rape after the disqualification of Judge Craig.

On a charge against Wade Robert of Kelso of making an assault on his wife, Gloria Robert, on June 15, his attorney was granted a leave to file a motion to transfer the case back to Magistrate Court for another preliminary hearing.

Robert's attorney contended that, during the first preliminary hearing on Aug. 31, cross examination of the state's witness was too limited and therefore Robert's constitutional rights to a preliminary hearing had been denied.

According to Mrs. Robert's testimony during the Aug. 31 preliminary, her husband beat her with a telephone, hit her with his fist in the face, tore her clothes off, drug her down a gravel road and struck her with a barbecue fork and wig brush.

The new hearing is scheduled on Oct. 19.

A marijuana possession charge was dismissed against Doyle Eugene Hendrix of Chaffee.

According to Moore, the case against Moore, the case against Hendrix was dismissed after Robert Dudley and Danny Householder co-defendants with Hendrix entered a plea of guilty to the charge. Hendrix, who was riding in the automobile at the time of the arrest, said he did not know the marijuana was in the car.

A warrant was issued for the arrest of Thomas Wade Brock who failed to appear in court on charges of buying stolen property on June 11.

Bet prompts Charleston suit

Certain writings in a notebook possessed by one of the three men.

Alcorn alleged that Lee had written in the notebook, a fact which Lee disputed. Cox and Alcorn then bet Lee $1,500 each that Lee was the writer.

The men then wrote out checks totaling $1,500 each and gave them to Eugene Wade of Charleston as stake holder.

The suit then alleges that before it was determined who had written in the notebook, Lee and Alcorn went to Wade and told him the bet had been called off.

According to the suit, Lee then returned Alcorn's checks which were torn up. After that, Alcorn notified Cox that the bet was called off and repudiated and that he (Alcorn) had been given his checks back and that they were torn up.

The suit then states that Lee cashed Cox's checks in the amount of $1,500 on Nov. 9, 1972, after the bet was called off and prior to determination of the true identity of the writer in the notebook.

Lee is to appear before Magistrate T. J. Brown Sept. 20.

LOOK! LOOK! LOOK!
GIVE! GIVE! GIVE!

Don't go away, television fans. Grab your six-packs and your munchies bags for seven prime-time hours of the Democratic Party's national telethon on Saturday, Sept. 15. What's that, you can't stand telethons? Ah, but this one will be different.

Instead of the usual screaming emcees and second-rate entertainers that parade endlessly across most such events, this marathon will have a message. "You know, the need to save the Democratic Party, the advantages of keeping the average man in control of his party, the need to make the system work," and John Y. Brown Jr., who is underwriting the venture, was quoted as saying. Brown, the man who discovered Colonel Sanders and made Kentucky fried chicken famous and himself rich, wants to make sure that this year's Democratic telethon has plenty of patriotism and love of country on the menu. He's gambling that the Watergate scandal and Senate hearings haven't turned people off from politics for good, and that Middle Americans will pitch in their dollars.

To that end, Mayor Richard J. Daley's Chicago has been named the kickoff city, playing host to a noon-hour rally on the Loop to focus attention on the telethon. Selection of the Windy City is widely believed to be a sign that whatever differences divided Daley and the Democrat Party in the past have been forgotten. The choice "shows Daley is certainly very much within the mainstream of the Democratic Party and certainly Chicago is one of the stars of the party crown," says Vince Clephas, the party's communications director.

Telethon proceeds will help pay off debts from the Democrats' 1968 presidential campaign, which had around $9 million in red ink but has cut it down to some $3.5 million. Last year's Democratic telethon, also sponsored by Brown, helped a lot by netting $3 million -- but it lasted 19 mind-numbing hours and was broadcast before the Watergate dam burst. Still, there is always hope. The Jerry Lewis muscular dystrophy telethon earlier this month received -- and accepted -- a $10,000 contribution from the "Gainesville (Fla.) Marijuana Dealers Association." Would the Democrats send it back?

According to the Oregon Voter Digest, the Gallup Poll reported that 11 per cent of American citizens would like to leave the U. S. and settle in another country. Since there are still quite a few countries that welcome American immigrants, it seems strange that these "alienated" people don't leave. Russia would surely give them a chunk of Siberia. The U. S. would be better off without them. Of course some people do leave the U.S., expecting utopia elsewhere, but most eventually return. Our freedom, high standard of living and national vigor have a magnetism for even the most disgruntled.

NEW YORK (AP) — Memory is a filter.

It sifts out much of the sadness of the past; it enhances the bright colors of our cheerful yesterdays and makes them dearer with each passing year.

We are fortunate indeed that memory has this filterlike quality for if it were like a klieg light or a microscope, the past would stand out too starkly and its buried events be emphasized too nakedly. Instead of helping us through life, memory might kill us with shame and regrets.

By and large, you've got a pretty good collection of memories if you can look back and remember when —

You could read the front page of a newspaper without feeling that the whole world was going to hell.

For $10,000 or less, you could buy the best house on most of the city blocks in America, and you could get a 25-year mortgage for 6 per cent interest.

Baseball really was the national pastime, and only rich people or freaks were interested in playing golf or tennis.

A congressman's mail consisted mostly of letters from constituents asking him to mail them free garden seeds, a prerogative he no longer enjoys.

In a large family, while grace was being said before meals, a wise child used this pause to glance at the meat platter to see which piece he'd try to get.

A man was regarded as reasonably successful if he died debt-free and left enough to pay for his funeral expenses.

Almost every American, young or old, knew what part of a cow's body gave milk and how many milk faucets she had. Do you know?

Because they were born free and owed no fealty to tyrant lords or creeds, Americans felt sure they were more than equal, man for man, to any other people on earth.

If you've been reading the newspapers, then you should be aware that Soviet chances to host the 1980 Olympic Games were seriously jeopardized recently by an incredible series of events at the World University Games in Moscow. The Soviets had lobbied hard for the 1980 games and the International Olympic Committee was expected to announce Moscow as the site sometime next year. Now, committee members are having second thoughts.

"The events of recent weeks demonstrate that the Soviet Union is far more interested in bitter and virulent politics than amateur athletics," said one IOC leader. Manipulation of the games for political purposes began even before they opened. South Korean and Israeli newsmen who applied for visas to cover their national teams were turned down flatly.

When the games opened officially in Moscow, well-orchestrated taunts were directed at the 32-man Israeli squad. Troops of the Red Army, dressed in uniform, led derisive whistling and cursing as the Israelis marched into the Moscow stadium.

The anti-Israeli campaign was just heating up. On Saturday, Red troops packed a small gymnasium where the Israelis played the Cuban team. Soldiers screamed "Kike!" and "Yidi!" at the Israeli athletes and guards prevented some 60 Soviet Jews from watching the game.

When Israel played Brazil, Red troops again ringed the court and showered the Israelis with anti-Semitic oaths. Then, during the game between Israel and Puerto Rico, soldiers poured into the stands to "disarm" a Soviet Jew who carried a small Israeli flag and ripped up a small banner, saying "Success to Israel!"

At the game's conclusion, plainclothes police severely beat the Jewish spectators. A French athlete who watched the incidents said he "wanted to vomit."

The most violent incident took place during the U.S. - Cuban basketball game. Trailing badly, the Cubans became rougher and rougher, hoping to provoke the U. S. players into a fight. The young Americans ignored the blatant fouls. Then when American Mitchell Kupchuk fell under the Cuban basket, he was kicked repeatedly.

Cuban players leaped from the bench and jumped the startled Americans. The Cubans picked up wooden folding chairs and battered their American opponents, who refused to fight back for fear they might be suspended from subsequent games.

Duane Woltzen, and assistant U. S. team manager, was knocked out when hit on the head by a chair. Lying unconscious on the floor, he was then kicked in the groin.

Cuban coach Ernesto Diaz chased U. S. coach Ed Badger across the floor, throwing punches and kicking him in the stomach. "It's unbelievable," a dazed American muttered.

Throughout all this, five Soviet police stood by impassively at curbside, making no effort to quell the mini-riot or protect the Americans. So outrageous was the incident that the Soviet spectators, who had been rooting for the Cubans began shouting in Russian, "Cubans out!" and "Americans si, Cuba no."

WASHINGTON-- A light-fingered scholar has stolen papers of "incalculable value" from the collection of the late Justice Felix Frankfurter at the library of congress.

The theft of irreplaceable diaries, letters and memoranda-- many hundreds of pages in all-- has been kept secret for a year while FBI agents and the library's own scholars-turned-detectives have searched feverishly for the papers.

The loss was discovered in September 1972, after an alert library of congress official noticed that a Frankfurter folder was empty. It had contained conversations between Frankfurter and the late Justice Louis Brandeis. A private researcher also reported a letter missing that he had seen among Frankfurter's papers earlier.

Alarmed, library officials turned loose a hush-hush team of scholars in the vast Frankfurter file. Within a few days, they had come up with a missing-- items list that horrified them. Gone were five years of Frankfurter's personal diaries, numerous notes on conversations with the mighty, memos, letters and personal jottings about the men in government Frankfurter had known so intimately.

The biggest obstacle facing the rehabilitated drug addict is finding a job. Gainful employment is one of the sine qua nons of the ex-addict's returning to a productive role in society. A year-long study by the New York State Temporary Commission to Evaluate the Drug Law disclosed discrimination exists in employment of rehabilitated addicts.

Some corporations, though, and their associations, have been making an effort to provide job training for those chronic drug users who have successfully completed detoxification and drug-free therapy. One such organization is the National Association of Engine and Boat Manufacturers, which has funded the New York City Addition Service Agency's "Pioneer Marine School."

At the South Street Seaport Museum rehabilitated addicts undergo six months of intensive training in marine repair work aboard the USS William H. Hart. Upon graduation, they are virtually assured job placement in the critically undermanned field of marine repair.

The first twelve graduates of the program received their diplomas at the National Boat Show this Spring. They were able to choose from among 70 jobs, paying at least $4 an hour.

In the words of A. W. MacKerer, chairman of the NAEBM Marine Service Council, "If we can fill a vital need of our own for service technicians, and at the same time do our part in alleviating some of the problems of today's youth -- bringing them into an industry that we feel offers good opportunity and a wholesome way of life -- our investment in this project will be repaid tenfold."

WATERGATE WAS NOT GOP'S FAULT
Clipping one's opponent on the football field is bad enough. What the Watergate conspirators did was like slipping sleeping pills into the other team's water bucket.

In other words, it was an entirely different category of offense from the usual nasty tricks political rivals play on one another.

The homely image of the playing field was suggested by Sen. Joseph R. Biden Jr., Democrat from Delaware, speaking at a recent City Club Forum in Cleveland as a last-minute substitute for one of the many casualties of the Watergate explosion - resigned White House aide John D. Ehrlichman.

"The importance of Watergate is not the bugging of telephones, it is the massive assault on the system," said Biden, "— eliminating the field of contenders and subverting the system."

"If the allegations are true, then those who took part in it crippled the other team before it got on the playing field."

Yet the senator warned his fellow Democrats that it would be morally wrong to blame the Republican party for Watergate. As a party, the Republicans had nothing to do with it.

Not only that, he pointed out, but not one person involved so far is a politician. They are all administrative bureaucrats.

"We are a product of our political system," said Biden. "What holds us together as a nation are not cultural ties as in other countries but political ties. We are able to move forward because of politics. If we bring down a great political party, we bring down our political system."

At 30 years of age, Biden is the nation's youngest senator. He makes more sense than some of the solons who have been in office that long.

There are two things some people never seem to get — all they want and all they deserve.

Washington Merry-Go-Round

By Jack Anderson

JACK ANDERSON SAYS:
The Case of the Historical Heist

WASHINGTON-- A light-fingered scholar has stolen papers of "incalculable value" from the collection of the late Justice Felix Frankfurter at the library of congress.

The theft of irreplaceable diaries, letters and memoranda-- many hundreds of pages in all-- has been kept secret for a year while FBI agents and the library's own scholars-turned-detectives have searched feverishly for the papers.

The loss was discovered in September 1972, after an alert library of congress official noticed that a Frankfurter folder was empty. It had contained conversations between Frankfurter and the late Justice Louis Brandeis. A private researcher also reported a letter missing that he had seen among Frankfurter's papers earlier.

Alarmed, library officials turned loose a hush-hush team of scholars in the vast Frankfurter file. Within a few days, they had come up with a missing-- items list that horrified them. Gone were five years of Frankfurter's personal diaries, numerous notes on conversations with the mighty, memos, letters and personal jottings about the men in government Frankfurter had known so intimately.

"INCALCULABLE VALUE" "We realized we had been robbed blind," a senior library official told my associate Les Whitten. "There was a tremendous amount missing of incalculable value."

Once the loss was assessed, the library called in the FBI which began discreetly interviewing scholars and researchers. To block further thefts, strict antitheft measures, previously dropped for budgetary reasons, were reinstituted. All this was done without alerting the general public to the intense search going on for the missing papers.

But now, the quest has reached a dead end. Return of the documents, most library officials recognize, depends on the delicate questions of the scholar-thief's respect for the pricelessness of his historical heist. Whoever the renegade researcher is, the officials concede, he robbed with discrimination and intelligence, selecting the most historically valuable documents.

According to one theory, the scholar is laboring alone on a project and wants to make sure he is the only one able to pursue it. If this is the case, the officials pray the scholar will somehow arrange to get the papers or copies of them back to the library so that future historians can study the remarkable life and times of Frankfurter, who died in 1965 at age 82 after serving 26 years on the Supreme Court.

CONTACT ANDERSON
To aid the recovery, we have offered to act as an intermediary between the unknown scholar and the library. We will guarantee not to reveal his name or otherwise identify him if he will contact us.

Without being able to bind the Justice Department, we will try to persuade Attorney General Elliot Richardson, himself a legal scholar, that the return of the Frankfurter papers is more than worth calling off the search for the mysterious thief.

Footnote: The only comparable theft in the library's 173-year history occurred in the 1940s when the papers of poet Walt Whitman were sent away for wartime safekeeping. After their return, several volumes of his notes were discovered missing. They were never recovered. More recently the library lost some valuable books, but a library clerk has been arrested for the alleged theft.

Anderson Award: Capitol Hill duffers held their first congressional golf tourney last year. Some of them seemed less interested in shooting par than in hauling home the prizes that were wangled from lobbyists. They were burdened down with TV sets, toilet seats and other valuable prizes-- all collected from lobbyists who didn't dare say no to the congressmen.

Because we exposed this convivial cornucopia, the second congressional golf tourney this year planned at first to give a "Jack Anderson Award" to the Senator or Representative who hit the ball farthest out of bounds.

But the idea was dropped by Rep. But Talcott, R-Calif., who as tourney chairman caught most of the heat last year for putting the squeeze on the lobbyists. Nevertheless, he has gamely accepted the chairmanship again this year.

In a memo to his golfing colleagues on Capitol Hill, Talcott reports that "in spite of the Jack Anderson columns," the congressmen will "play again this year." The event is scheduled on September 14 at Andrews Air Force Base. This time, however, the prizes will be collected more discreetly by individual congressmen rather than the organized, massive effort of a year ago.

BALANCED LAND USE POLICY IS SUPPORTED BY INDUSTRY

Bills to create a national land use policy received the support in principle of the National Association of Manufacturers at a Congressional hearing, but NAM urged that the legislation protect the chance for industry to furnish goods and services efficiently.

Gene C. Brewer, vice chairman of Southwest Forest Industries, Inc., Phoenix, Ariz., testified for the NAM. He said, "We believe that an era of militant, winner-take-all positions should end, and that an era of intelligent compromise, accommodation and balancing of conflicting interests should begin so that the needs of all segments of society can be adequately met."

The NAM suggested that a national land use policy should encourage the development of adequate domestic energy sources and adequate domestic mining and manufacturing facilities subject to appropriate regulation to minimize or avoid adverse effects on the environment.

As the legislation now reads, Mr. Brewer pointed out, there are a number of damaging results to the economy that would be permitted, including:

— Curtailment of exploration, mining, and drilling necessary to meet the energy and minerals crisis.

— Curtailment of timber harvesting necessary to meet housing and construction needs.

— Sharp reduction of potential industrial sites with access to the inland waterways which provide low cost transportation for bulk materials and constitute a great economic asset of this nation.

"It is obvious that land use planning can affect every aspect of human life. It can dictate restrictions on production and distribution of goods and energy which can result in tremendous costs to the consuming public," the NAM concluded.

THE COMMUNIST MUZZLE
I have long held the belief that the spoken and written words were two of the most indispensable liberties preserved in the Constitution of Republic USA. I have endeavored to provide a public service to myself and all other patriotic minded citizens of this great land, through newspaper columns, letters to the editor and various books I have authored. Article I of the Bill of Rights, which protects the exercise of freedom of speech and of the press, has always seemed to me the product of divine inspiration on the part of our Founding Fathers.

The Soviet Constitution pays lip service to freedom of speech and press, but it is not surprising to observe the blatant repression of such fundamental freedoms in the Soviet Union. No less a personage than novelist Alexander Solzhenitsyn, winner of the Nobel Prize for literature, is forced to contend with threats of murder and imprisonment for stating views critical of the communist government. Speaking of official threats, Solzhenitsyn said: "I received letters with threats, rather than demands; threats to make short work of me and my family. This summer such letters have come to me through the mail. Not to mention psychological mistakes, the many technical mistakes by the authors have convinced me that these letters have been sent by KGB agents."

How different Solzhenitsyn would find life in this country, where the individual enjoys a multitude of channels through which to vent constructive criticisms of his government. It is typical of the communist system to muzzle even its gifted writers in the interest of national security. HLH

Inside Labor

By Victor Riesel

A Labor President?
McGovern Forces Counterattack Meany Coalition For Control of Democratic Party

WASHINGTON-- A sneak preview of the 1976 Democratic national convention has its curtain-raiser early the morning of Sept. 21 here. It could be Miami revisited. Its almost global significance is in the ability of George Meany's labor legions and their allies to stand off the counterattacks of Sen. George McGovern's leftist coalition of those dedicated to racial, sexual, "youth-ist" and deviationist quotes.

They washed the growling labor chief right out of their long hair last year. Now Meany and his chief of political operations Al Barkan, director of labor's powerful Committee on Political Education (COPE), are ready for the karate riposte Sept. 21. That morning "Ms." (as she insists on being called) Barbara Mikulski opens the first national session of her Democratic Party Commission on Delegate Selection and Party Structure.

Ms. Mikulski, a Baltimore city councilman, is "chair person" of the commission, which is heavily loaded with McGovern's youthful veterans who brought reports of six regional conferences, many of them furiously loud, which were held since last spring across the country in cities from Boston to San Francisco, Denver and Atlanta.

This commission eventually will draw up the rules for selection of delegates, first to the critical midterm mini-convention probably in December 1974. And thus for the final Armageddon at the '76 presidential nominating convention.

Leaders of both sides, the labor-old line machine coalition and the McGovern forces, want a low-key national conference. But it's significant that the parley is set for Sept. 21 and 22-- with an open option for a third day's session on the 23rd if the battling isn't over.

Both sides are geared, operating committee when, as Barkan has been whirlwinding head of the Democratic 1974 campaign committee, he forces in order for his mentor, addressed and conferred with COPE leaders in a Chicago suburb early in August.

There is similar cooperation with Kentucky's new governor, Wendell Ford, from whom the nation will hear soon enough. They've worked closely on "reorganizing the party" against the McGovern forces.

It's all part of labor's new Southern strategy to put a friend of its very own into the White House in 1977.

But it will all be wasted if labor controls the party's leadership-- and loses down below where the delegates are selected in the precincts and primaries.

So watch the preview. It can make or break powerful forces inside the Democratic party-- and decide if labor takes the 1976 jackpot.

Ann Landers

Bride's request leaves friend in state of shock

Dear Ann Landers: You have printed letters from all sorts of far-out kooks—some so nutty I was sure you made them up. But now I am faced with an honest-to-goodness Ann Landers problem and I need your advice. Will you please be a good sport and help me?

I was invited to a wedding and did not send in an acceptance because I wasn't sure I could attend. I telephoned, however, and told the bride-to-be that I would try to be there, if it was possible.

Due to circumstances I won't go into here, I was not able to attend. Three days later I received the following letter in the mail:

Dear-----: Since you did not attend my wedding after you had confirmed the invitation, I feel that you should contribute toward the food. The cost of each plate was $5 and we had to pay for your reservation even though you did not attend. I would not ask you to do this but we are over $300 in debt because people like you said they were coming and did not show up. Your contribution would help a lot. Very truly yours—Signature of the bride.

Well, Ann: Did you EVER????????? What should I do?—Still Stunned
Dear S. S.: No, never!!!!!! Now, forget it.

Dear Ann Landers: I dye my husband's hair and have been doing it for nearly ten years. At first he objected but I convinced him it would be to his advantage to look younger. Finally he agreed. Now he wouldn't have gray hair on a bet. Here are the advantages of dyeing, as he sees them:

A man who looks elderly is considered over-the-hill, terribly square and out of step with the times. When people think you are middle-aged instead of old, they treat you like a contemporary. This is bound to make a man more cheerful. It lifts his spirits and improves his ability to function sexually.

I believe some women want to look younger than their husbands, which is why they dye their own hair but they don't offer to dye their husbands'. What do YOU think, Ann?—A Fan In El Paso

Dear El Paso: I think if I ever suggested to my husband that he let me dye his hair he would send me in for a saliva test. If YOUR husband likes it, that's his business. To each his own.

Dear Ann Landers: My husband and I are very particular about our diet. We eat only fresh vegetables from our garden, a lot of fruit and yogurt, homemade whole-wheat and nut bread, no meat and very little starch.

A problem arises when we want to invite our parents or neighbors for dinner. We never know if we should serve them what we eat, or if we should buy meat, etc. I don't think people have a right to impose their life style on others. But cooking two different meals is a lot of trouble.

What do you say?—You Are What You Eat

Dear Y. A.: It's not much trouble to throw a steak or a piece of fish under the broiler for guests who don't care for yogurt. Why not come right out and ask your guests what they would prefer?

It's not always easy to recognize love, especially the first time around. Acquaint yourself with the guidelines. Read Ann Landers's booklet, "Love Or Sex And How To Tell The Difference." For a copy, mail 35c in coin and a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request to this newspaper.

Mrs. Hicks honored at dinner

Mrs. Owen Hicks, 416 E. Center, was honored with a surprise birthday dinner on Labor Day at the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Canoy, 1104 Linn.

Attending were her daughter and husband, the Rev. and Mrs. Homer Edwards, 833 Ruth St., and the family of her granddaughter, Mr. and Mrs. Gary Mitchem and Sean, a great-grandson.

On Sept. 6, Mrs. Hicks' birthday, she was presented a birthday cake and gifts from her family at her home.

Love is... smiling when you find she is snoring instead of reading.

The Third World finds its mission

By DAVID POLING

Christians in North America and Europe have been cutting back on their overseas missions for almost a decade. The main-line denominations have had to recall staff as the national church budgets in this country continue to be trimmed. Yet the missionary movement has enormous energy and much that is happening in Christian circles is coming out of the younger churches in the Third World.

Last year, staff members of the Fuller Seminary School of World Mission joined forces with Edward Dayton and William Needham of World Vision to research and report the mission output of the newer churches. Their conclusions can be read in "Missions From the Third World," available now at the William Carey Library at 533 Hermosa St., South Pasadena, Cal. 91030.

Some of the startling facts: Nigeria is the leading country in sending missionaries today — more than 800 in service and some 616 from one church alone — Christ Apostolic Church. Both Brazil and India send more workers overseas (to the Third World) than does the United States.

Writing in Christianity Today, C. Peter Wagner notes that some 209 sending agencies of the Third World are currently sponsoring 3,411 missionaries. Perhaps Billy Graham is right when he suggests that the center of Christianity has shifted from the Western nations to the Far East, with Korea as the new power base.

Speaking of Korea, the vitality and influence of Christian witness flowing out of that country is almost beyond calculation. The congregations have a New Testament quality about them. The energy and zeal of the average church member would embarrass most Western Christians. And when more than one million people gathered for the final rally of the Graham crusade in that country in May, they probably created the largest meeting of Christians in world history.

This spring, Koreans in Phoenix, Ariz. began to form their own Presbyterian Church. Already a Korean staff member had begun to work among the 500 Koreans now living in that southern city. This missionary had been sent by the Young Nak Church in Seoul — one of the largest Presbyterian congregations in the world and certainly one with a missionary vision. The Presbytery of Grand Canyon, according to its executive chief, Robert Chapman, may soon be adding a new congregation to its official roll — not Spanish or Indian or Anglo — but Korean. Thanks to the Third World, Christian missions are alive and well and growing.

'The Rapture' premiere set at First Assembly

A shocking but true-to-the-Bible news documentary vividly depicting what the world will be like just 24 hours after Christ returns is the subject of a new film produced by David Wilkerson Youth Crusades. "THE RAPTURE" makes its area premiere at 7 p.m. Wednesday at First Assembly of God Church, 306 S. Kingshighway, Pastor T. A. McDonough announced today.

The film is a dramatization of a combined network news special reporting the "rapture" with satellite reports from around the world. It depicts how the earth will be literally shaken when multitudes of Jesus people vanish in the twinkling of an eye.

Babies are missing from hospitals, Wall Street panics, airplanes lose control and crash and automobiles, trains and buses collide — and a chain of natural disasters takes the lives of countless others.

There is also a unique treatment of the Biblical "mark of the beast" and how it could affect the world almost overnight. It is realistic and up to date.

The Rev. David Wilkerson, author of the book, "Switchblade and the Cross," and executive producer of the film, states, "The purpose of this film is to awaken the young and old alike to the reality and nearness of the rapture. This believable, low profile film has such an impact every viewer will have to decide what he must do about Christ's imminent return."

Scripture: 1 Corinthians 11:17-26

UNITY AT THE LORD'S TABLE

Paul reminded the people in Corinth of the need for unity, especially at the Lord's Table. "Where you proclaim the death of the Lord until He comes."

In taking the Lord's Supper many believers come extremely close to God, if they pause and recognize the meaning of the occasion.

Paul's concern was with the speed and the lack of feeling in which the brethren participated in the Lord's Supper. Apparently these people were similar to many today, anxious to beat the rush home or to restaurants for their Sunday meals.

This abuse of the Lord's Supper was another incident that reflected the corruption in Corinth. The observance of the recognition of Christ's last supper with His disciples had become routine and meaningless to the people.

In order to bring the stragglers back into the church, Paul compared the first Lord's Supper with the practices followed in Corinth. If those partaking of the elements are blighted by lovelessness among the congregation, the unity with Christ is endangered.

Today the Lord's Supper means much to us. It is another means of communication between God and His people. It is a reminder, too, of what Christ did for His people, giving Himself upon the cross.

Christ said He was the bread of life and the cup of wine represented His blood shed on the cross. The ceremony is simple, possibly too simple to make us remember the occasion.

Disagreements occur today over the frequency that communion should be served as well as the form. Should we walk to the altar or be served in the pew?

Such debates overshadow the reason for the communion service, which is a simple remembrance of Christ's death for us. The communion table does not belong to any one person anymore than the first table belonged to any one disciple.

Christ used the Supper to declare His lasting love for us. When we approach the table we are reminded of the treachery of the occasion, as well as the blessing involved.

The symbols, bread and wine, were known to all the people. Bread, of course, is the universal symbol of physical sustenance. The taking of the cup followed the meal and it served as a sign of the final remission of sins.

The Lord's Supper becomes a constant reminder of the benefits we received from Christ's death. It is recalling for us how Christ dies for all sinners.

Apparently we need constant reminders of our sins. We need to think often of our hypocrisy, intolerance, selfishness, and worldliness. And of our neglect of the Church's services and beliefs.

One must approach the Lord's Supper with a feeling of awe and wonder, not as another meal in a local cafe. It must be approached by expressions of genuineness, sincerity, and humility.

Why, then, do we continue to observe the Lord's Supper? Primarily to thank Christ for all He did for us and to remind ourselves of our obligations to follow His teachings.

Christ did not spell out the minute details as to how the occasion should be handled. He was not concerned with such factors. It was the remembrance of His death that concerned Him. It was for our benefit, not for His ego.

Christ recognized that His people tend to stray from time to time. He no doubt looked upon the Lord's Supper as a simple, easy to prepare, and inexpensive ceremony that served to bring His people home again.

Paul said we must "test" ourselves before partaking of the elements. We must "ex-

Miner Baptists to mark 50th birthday Sunday

Miner Baptist Church, Route H at Highway 62, will celebrate its 50th anniversary Sunday with special services featuring talks by former pastors and special music by the church choirs directed by James Wilson.

Sunday's services will include Sunday School at 9:30 a.m., worship at 10:30 a.m. and the anniversary service at 1:30 p.m., following dinner at the church at 12:30 p.m. The anniversary service will close at approximately 3:30 p.m.

The Rev. L. J. Chastain, pastor of Tyler Avenue Baptist Church at Riverside, Calif., a former Miner pastor, will preach the morning sermon.

Nursery care will be provided.

Other former pastors attending will be the Rev. Cecil King, pastor of First Baptist Church of O'Fallon; the Rev. Lawrence Ray, pastor of the Vanduser Baptist Church; the Rev. A. C. Sullivan, pastor of the Diehlstadt Baptist Church; and Dr. Thomas Messer of Cape Girardeau, professor of Bible at Southeast Missouri State University.

Also attending will be the Rev. Lee Fansler, pastor of First Baptist Church of Bertrand who was licensed to preach by the Miner church, and the Rev. Dallas Wallace of Sikeston, who was ordained as a minister at Miner.

The church was organized Sept. 6, 1923 with 48 members and the Rev. S. B. Church as pastor. The Rev. Hilary Patterson, Charleston Baptist Association missionary, pastored the church until 1927 when the Rev. A. E. Ray was named pastor. In August 1927 the church was officially named Miner Baptist Missionary Church and met on the site now known as the Miner Cemetery. The church was originally called Bright Prospect church.

Among the charter members were Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Byrd, Mattie Lou (Byrd) Lyon, Horace Byrd, Dan Byrd, Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Hill, Albert and Orval Holt and Mrs. Eva Miller.

Pastors during the late 1920s were the Rev. Mr. Crocker, the Rev. J. P. Yount, the Rev. Phillip Sadler Sr., the Rev. Mr. Ray and the Rev. Mr. Patterson.

The Rev. Luther Moore was the first pastor to live on the church field.

When the Rev. S. E. Hamilton was pastor in 1930, the present site of the church was purchased by the Ladies Aid. The cornerstone for the auditorium was laid on Nov. 4, 1935, with the Rev. Lawrence Ray as pastor. The Rev. Mr. Ray and Dallas Wallace were ordained at the church Sept. 2, 1936.

Pastors during the late 1930s and early 1940s were the Rev. Mr. Sullivan and the Rev. Lem Council of Sikeston.

The Rev. William Mithfield was the church's first full-time pastor. The church building was dedicated Nov. 16, 1947. The Rev. A. H. Cunningham was interim pastor after the departure of the Rev. Charles R. Trammell, brother-in-law of Ralph Lingle of Sikeston.

The Rev. Mr. Chastain began as pastor in January 1948, and the church purchased the Wyman house for a parsonage. During his pastorate, the educational building was erected.

Dr. Messer served as interim pastor after the Rev. Mr. Chastain resigned in 1954 until the Rev. Cecil King of New Albany, Ind., was named pastor.

Temple Baptist Mission was organized by the church in June 1956. The mission became a church on Aug. 28, 1957.

The Rev. A. T. Wilkerson of Cape Girardeau served as interim pastor from Nov. 12, 1958 until Jan. 7, 1959. The Rev. E. Clinton Roberson became pastor in 1959 and served until 1968. During his leadership, the church helped finance a mission in Ithaca, N. Y., organized by Mr. and Mrs. Moe Watson, former members of Miner, and the church bought two lots in Clayton East Acres for a site for a parsonage. The parsonage was built in 1963.

The Rev. E. D. Owen served as interim pastor in 1968 and the Rev. Ira Fruits of Springfield was named pastor in August 1968. He served until August 1971.

The Rev. Grady Etheridge, the present pastor, was chosen on March 15, 1972, after having served as interim pastor. In April 1972, the church bought an organ. Since then the church auditorium has been carpeted and two successful Sunday School attendance campaigns have been conducted.

The Anniversary Committee consists of Mrs. Ben O. Matthews chairman, Floyd Woods, Mrs. Aileen Laseter, Raymond Ford and Roy Masterson.

100. Deborah the Prophetess

After the death of Ehud, the children of Israel once again turned away from the Lord. Therefore, the Lord delivered them into the hand of King Jabin of Hazor, in Canaan. And King Jabin's commander was Sisera, who was widely acclaimed as a mighty warrior and leader.

King Jabin, with the aid of Sisera, brought together a formidable force which included 900 chariots of iron, and for 20 years, "...he mightily oppressed the children of Israel." (Judges 4:3)

At this time Deborah, a prophetess, the wife of Lapidoth, judged the children of Israel. Deborah summoned unto her Barak, the son of Abinoam, and asked him: "...Hath not the Lord God of Israel commanded...Go, and draw toward mount Tabor, and take with thee 10,000 men of the children of Naphtali and of the children of Zebulun? And I will draw unto thee, to the river Kishon, Sisera... with his multitude; and I will deliver him into thine hand." (Judges 4:6-7)

But Barak refused to go unless Deborah accompanied him. "And she said, I will surely go with thee; notwithstanding the journey that thou takest shall not be for thine honour; for the Lord shall sell Sisera into the hand of a woman." (Judges 4:9)

Then Deborah rose, and accompanied Barak to Kedesh.

By Ron Jaynes

You know ... after eight years as Sports Editor of the Daily Standard, I still look forward to each season. You'd figure that after 20 or more football games a season, nearly 100 basketball encounters and who knows how many baseball games, one might get a little burned out on sports ... It's just in my blood I guess.

Every where I go I'm quized about who I think will win this and that ... It seems that many of you read this column and know that we make some wild predictions at time.

So before I set in to call tonight's action on the gridiron ... I'll give you my thoughts on the professional baseball race.

Baltimore is a shoo-in as the American League Eastern Division champ after having built up a seven game buldge over its nearest competitor, Box Red Sox.

Oakland would have to suffer a complete downfall to lost the Al's West. The A's hold a 4 1/2 game lead over Kansas City with 16 games remaining. The same holds true for Cincinnati in the Western Division of the National League, who holds 4 1/2 game buldge over Los Angeles.

But the Eastern Division ace in the National League is still wide open with four teams still in a position to win it. Pittsburgh holds a one game advantage over St. Louis as they call on the Cardinals tonight. Montreal is 1 1/2 games back.

New York 2 1/2 behind and Chicago four out. I'd like to see the Cardinals win it, but with the injury problem they have it would be a shame to send them into the playoffs. Montreal is my longshot pick.

Young faithful, Tony Ford, is the only member of last year's prediction panel to pass along his guesses for the opening night of action. My assistant, Bill Harrison, didn't even care to venture his thoughts.

So I welcome my friend to another season of guessing and invite any of our readers to try their hand next week. Here goes:

Farmington at Sikeston --- Tony has given the Bulldogs a three point edge, but I'd rather go for a deadlock ... even a scoreless battle. Defense is supposed to be both teams strength ... I figure they'll both hold their ground. Tony says 17-14 SHS ... I'll say 7-7.

St. Genevieve at Perryville --- This should be an interesting bout. The two teams are rivals and when that plays a role in a game ... it's awfully hard to guess the outcome ... Tony says the Pirates by two, 8-6 and that sounds reasonable.

Springfield Glendale at Poplar Bluff --- Glendale really let the Mules have it last season, wallopping them 27-0. The Mules should return the favor ... Tony has Glendale a 27-7 favorite, but I'd just have to reverse the score.

Cape Central at Carbondale, Ill. --- Cape started the season off with a 47-0 romp last year. The Bengals are rated somewhat weaker than last while their Illinois opponents supposedly are better than last. It should be a real interesting contest. Tony says Cape 35-7, but I'll have to go with a more respectable score ... CCHS 21, Carbondale 19.

East Prairie at Scott City --- The Eagles absorbed a 30-12 defeat last season before the home folks in this opener ... They'd like to return the favor, but lack experience. Tony has a 42-6 romp predicted, but I'll say I-SC 28, East P. 14.

Hayti at South Pemiscot --- What a mis-match. Tony calls it 45-0 in favor of the Indians. It'll be just about that, or more, depending on the Hayti wants.

Doniphan at North County --- It could be a long night for the Dons ... not to mention the trip ... Doniphan returns most of the same team that absorbed a 21-6 defeat last year. It should be a repeat. Tony says 31-28 in favor of the host.

Charleston at Portageville --- Now that should be one of the better matches of the night ... This will mark the first meeting of the two schools. A tie would be the best bet, but since Tony went with Portageville, 19-18, I'll have to back the Bluejays 21-20.

Jackson at Dexter --- Coach Clyde Vaughn's Bearcats lack experience. This should be a real test for both clubs. The Cats suffered a 28-0 defeat a year ago and could be a victim of the same powerful Indian attack ago, if it were not for the game to be played at home ... The fans should pep up the Cats. Tony has Jackson a 28-19 favorite, but I see a closer battle ... JHS 21-19.

Kennett at Malden --- This traditional opener has provided the district with one of the most exciting matches. Malden has a new coach and he gets his initiation in big fashion as he pits his team against the school rivals. Tony has Kennett a 21-14 favorite, but I feel it might be a closer contest. MHS 14-13.

Chaffee at St. Vincent --- The Red Devils lost a 19-12 game to the Indians last season ... I'd figure about the same outcome. Tony says 20-6.

Caruthersville at Fredericktown --- Last year's game was a high scoring affair, won by the Blackcats 19-13. It should be a repeat. Tony has the host 9-7 favorite.

Now you have our predictions ... Let's hear from you next week. Be sure and back your local team tonight in their opener.

runner. Don Dowling was the tribe quarterback.

The Perryville Pirates have lost their fine coach to the Sikeston Bulldogs but new head coach Bob Decker will have 12 lettermen returning with 185 pound quarterback Roger Brewer leading the team.

Coach Joe Black of the Charleston Bluejays has a fine quarterback in Junior Delay returning from last year. The Jays will have a good backfield with Donnie Hatchell and Kevin Chambers carrying the pigskin.

The Sikeston Bulldogs will have to use all the talents that new head mentor Terry Smith is able to instill into them if they are to dethrone the Tigers this year. Back from last year are linebacker and tight end Roy Bowman, a very aggressive player who will be doing some head hunting from his middle linebacking position this season.

The Bulldogs have a veteran squad returning with Shane Wagoner counted on to be their top defensive lineman this season. Kenny Dement, Greg Colwick, Mike Marshall, and Dick Swann are returning lettermen and should be very tough.

Jackson which lost only to the Cape Central Tigers in 1972 has 16 players returning from the state 3A playoffs. The Indians have an outstanding quarterback in Mark Jones. The Indian signal caller rushed for 443 yards in 1972 and passed for five touchdowns. Another help to Paul Webbers tribe will be all-conference running back Loren Sides, who rushed for 1,031 yards last year with a 10 yard average and scored 78 points.

Coach Webber will have considerable size in the line as 230 pound Terry Gohn, 250 pound Rob Stover, 210 pound John Ellis, and 190 pound defensive and Fred Swan are back.

The Poplar Bluff Mules have an inexperienced squad to challenge the Tigers with. Coach Tom Telle has only one good runner, in Tutti Hays. Quarterback John Casey will be a junior this year so the Mules will be trying to rebuild for 1973.

The Kennett Indians of coach Bill Arment will have another fighting team this season with little experience returning from last year. His top linemen will be 195 pound Jiles McKeel and 180 pound Terry Shands, 180 pound Bill Wilkey is the top Gone is the great runner, Paul Schermann, who made the opposing linemen and linebackers shudder when quarterback Bill Seabaugh called on the big fullback number.

Coach Lynch probably has to hold back a large grin of confidence as he is questioned about the coming season and the Tigers chances. Returning to the squad is the all-conference quarterback Bill Seabaugh, who weighs in at 180 pounds and can run or throw the pigskin.

235 pound linemen Lindell Randolph, 226 pound Rob Rueseler, 215 Dallas Alberts, and 210 pound Morris Osburn are going to make it mighty difficult for the running backs of the Tiger opponents to get yardage this season.

Steve L. and Steve C., a couple of Taylors weigh in at 195 pounds and the Tigers have a good runner in 180 pound Tim Vickery. Jeff Hutton is probably the conference's best kicker for the field goals if needed.

After the Tigers the second place race should be up for grabs as Jackson, last years runnerup, will try to challenge along with a hope Sikeston crew.

Bengals have run up an incredible 27 straight league victories since the 1968 Sikeston Bulldogs, under the direction of now retired William Sapp, turned the trick by a 14-6 margin. The Tigers ended that season deadlocked in a three-way tie with Sikeston and Perryville. Since that defeat the Tigers have won five consecutive undisputed championships.

Coach Lynch was a young unknown coach seeking a head coaching job the year before but now must be counted as one of the top high school mentors in the state. No head football coach has had as much success as Lynch since Kenny Knox took over the reigns at Sikeston in 1948.

In the five years that the Bengals have been under the direction of coach Lynch they have piled up a fantastic 29-1 slate in the Northern Conference and a whopping 43-5 overall.

On paper the Tigers look like they are shoo-ins for their sixth straight title as the 4-1 representative from southeast Missouri has 25 returning lettermen to give the other conference members the woes in 1973.

Southern visits SEMO

CAPE GIRARDEAU-- Southeast Missouri State University's gridiron group, after losing 20-12 to a tough Delta State team last week, will meet another strong challenge at 8 Saturday night as the Missouri Southern Lions of Joplin come to Houck Stadium.

The Lions, who had a 14-game winning streak ended at Fort Hays, Kan., last week end, will come to Cape Girardeau with 29 lettermen from the 1972 squad, which was the NAIA Division Two national champions.

Indian head Football Coach Tom Thrower is expecting to see a strong Lion squad. He declared, "I have no reason to believe Missouri Southern won't be a sound football team," and pointed out the Lions have several junior college transfers and a couple of outstanding freshmen.

This will be the third meeting between the two schools. Last year the Indians lost 7-6. In 1971 the Tribe defeated Southern 7-3. It was in the '71 meeting at Cape Girardeau that Southeast Missouri State lost six key players to injury, including running back Rick Attig of Murphysboro, Ill. Attig, then a sophomore, missed the rest of the season.

Thrower pointed out that Southern had a strong defensive unit last year and should be just as strong this year. Included among the returning Lion defensive players is John Busalacki, who led the team in interceptions. Barry Korner, an honorable mention All-American linebacker, is out of action with an injury.

Offensively the Lions should also display soundness. At quarterback Missouri Southern features Steve Hamilton, a 6-4, 210-pound sophomore who throws well and runs the option. In last week's 14-9 loss to Fort Hays, Hamilton passed for 191 yards.

At running back for the Lions will be Terry Starks who had led the team in rushing for two years and reportedly is sought by the Pros.

Lydell Williams, the Lions' leading scorer last year, is also regarded by Thrower as an outstanding player from the running back position.

Indian Defensive Backfield Coach Ken Hargens said Missouri Southern's wide receivers have good speed and fine hands.

Topping the Lion receiver corps is Bernie Busken, who was their leading receiver in 1972. Busken caught six passes for 90 yards last weekend.

Looking toward this week's game Thrower said, "We are not going to try to do anything different, just try to improve on the things we didn't do right last week."

The coach explained a big problem for his team was missed blocking assignments. He also noted the specialty teams were not as good as they should have been.

There hasn't been one disqualification in 105 games of the Belmont Stakes.

Man charged with enticing young girl under $2,000 bond

BLOOMFIELD—Bond was set at $2,000 each for James Arlen Amos, 18, and Austin Neal Calloway, 18, both of Ohatchee, Ala., who appeared in Magistrate Court before Judge Koss Blomeyer.

The youths are charged with tampering with a motor vehicle belonging to Mrs. Bob Bryant of Malden. The car was reported stolen from the Wal-Mart parking lot in Dexter Tuesday. Preliminary was set for Sept. 20.

Preliminary was also set for Sept. 20 for Stanley Guldberg of Bloomfield, charged with enticing a 13-year-old Dexter girl away from home for the purpose of concubinage. Bond was set at $2,000.

Bond was set at $2,500 on each charge of two counts of burglary and stealing against Frank Small of Bloomfield. Preliminary was set for Sept. 20.

Terry Holt of Essex was bound over to Circuit Court

The case against Homer W. Hemby and Merle Edward Hemby, both of Puxico, was continued until Sept. 27, until witnesses could be subpoenaed, as the court felt more information was needed before a decision could be made. They are charged with trespassing on the Mingo Job Corps Center near Puxico.

David P. Williamson of Hammond, Ind. was found guilty of driving while intoxicated, fined $100 and ordered to surrender his operator's license.

Roscoe Lattie Pierce entered a plea of not guilty to a charge of careless and imprudent driving and trial was set for Sept. 20. The case against Scott W. Jones, charged with non-support, was dismissed at his cost.

Others paying fines were: Steven Clinton Carlton of Cape Girardeau, careless and imprudent driving, following too close and causing an accident, $15; Loy Heeb of Chaffee, violation of restriction on operator's license, $5; Evelyn Marie Riggs of Dexter, no operator's license and involved in an accident, $15.

James I. Cummings of Sikeston, no operator's license, $10; James Andrew Green of Bell City, careless and imprudent driving, $10; Dorothy Gayle Oglesby of Advance, driving while intoxicated, $100, and surrender of operator's license.

Emmett Riley Rushin of Bloomfield, careless and imprudent driving, $10; Joyce E. Burks of Malden, expired vehicle license, $10; Jerry L. Simpson of Bloomfield, expired vehicle license, $10; and Johnathan S. Roberts of Dudley, careless and imprudent driving and causing an accident, $15.

Pine Bluff, Ark.—D. W. Bowker, Pine Bluff, formerly of Illinois, superintendent of this division of the Cotton Belt and Roadmaster W. O. Sublette of Texarkana, were instantly killed and five others, including General Superintendent, W. E. McGraw, were injured two miles from Plain Dealing, La., when a motor car on which they were making an inspection jumped the track.

Four wagon loads of cotton were brought to Sikeston by local farmers Tuesday, three of them being sold and the other left for ginning. This was the first cotton to be brought to Sikeston for ginning in many years.

The passing away of Mrs. Green B. Greer at her home on Lake street and North Ranney avenue last Friday removed from our midst one of the city's most prominent and most influential women. Mrs. Greer had been in ill health for the past six years and during the last four years she had spent considerable time in St. Louis hospitals in her heroic fight to continue her earthly work.

Miss Ruth Mouser left Monday for Cape Girardeau, where she will attend Teachers College.

Royal H. Wilson, formerly associated with the J. G. McCrory stores company of the South, took charge of the local Sterling Store last Friday, it was announced by C. E. Varner, district supervisor of the chain of popular variety stores.

The big one that did not get away, in this instance is displayed publicly in a local drug store window. A Muskellong or "Muskie" caught August 10 by Dr. T. C. McClure in Gresham Lake, Woodruff, Wis., was placed in the Derris Drug Store window Friday for the edification of the doctor's prowess with rod and reel, and possibly to save wear and tear on the fisherman's arms which have been considerably strained by indicating a dozen times each day the 44 1/2-inch length of the 30 pounder.

James E. Tines, formerly of Chaffee, and a Frisco special agent, but of late living in Springfield, Mo., was fatally wounded Saturday in a reported holdup near the West Frisco shops.

New Madrid—The following teachers have returned to New Madrid to resume their duties teaching in the public schools here: Miss Anne Warden, Miss Rebecca Jagers, Ed Ralston, Miss Opal Arnold, L. L. Schutte and Miss Louise Hasslinger. New teachers include: Cletus Bidewell, Mrs. Helen Jones, and Rev. Beall.

Canalou—Mrs. Ethel Bryant of St. Louis spent a few days here during the past week with her mother, Mrs. J. W. Baughn and other relatives.

Matthews—Miss Kathleen Henry is visiting relatives at LaForge this week.

Two additional teachers have been added to the high school faculty, according to Supt. R. A. Harper, completing the faculty for the current school year. Robert Head, whose home is in Kansas City, has been employed as music instructor. Orville Nothdurft, who formerly taught in the local schools, has been employed as an instructor in industrial arts and science. Mrs. Frank Schulte has been added as a temporary teacher in the first grade at Bailey School and Mrs. Louise Taylor has been added to the faculty of the South Grade school.

Gunn—Mate Gregory Urhahn of Benton, was reported missing a year ago by the government following one of the major naval engagements in the Pacific war zone. Saturday night he walked into his fathers home at Benton very much alive, although a bit scathed war veteran.

Mark Twain show

DEXTER—A new and original look at the works of American author Mark Twain will be performed in the Dexter High School air-conditioned auditorium Monday at 8 p.m.

The play, The Mark Twain Traveling Sunshine Show, is the creation of Continental Theatre Company, a Midwest-based national professional company.

According to Continental Theatre Company director, Wesley Van Tassel, the Mark Twain show is an extension of the Twain portrayals developed initially by Hal Hollbrook and John Chappel. In the CTC production, the concept is expanded to include music and dance of the period in which Twain lived and wrote. Within the format of a lively banjo-picking riverboat show, humanity is viewed through the eyes of Mark Twain. The play, featuring a fully-professional cast, has some of Twain's best stories performed with period songs and routines tying the work together.

"The entire production is original material, with the exception of Twain's words," Van Tassel said. The Twain material has been arranged and edited to fit the needs of the production. Neill Roan's music and lyrics are based on moods and music of the nineteenth century, with riverboat flavor blending with high society attitudes of the period. Paul Walker's choreography is developed around movements and patterns of the period, as are the costumes which Mr. Walker designed.

The CTC will also present a fully-staged version of William Shakespeare's "Comedy of Errors" for high school students on the same day at 1 p.m., at no cost to schools or students and is provided by contributions and cooperation with the Missouri State Council on the Arts.

Stoddard County Patrons of the Arts and Humanities for 1973 will be admitted on their complimentary tickets, and all remaining seats will be sold through admission at the door.

In addition, he holds bachelor of science and master of science and education degrees from Arkansas State University and is a member of Phi Delta Kappa, professional educational fraternity. He is married to the former Frances Burge and they have four sons. The Duns are members of Northside Baptist Church.

"DICKENSIAN CONDITIONS" are what these militants are militating about in London as they seek to confront Mrs. Margaret Thatcher, Britain's education minister. In this case, Dickensian conditions mean a partially roofed school with outside toilets which frequently freeze up in winter—one of the seats of trouble.

What's the law?

The case of the below-par ladies

By Jack Strauss, LL.B.

A city-owned golf course on weekends was a place where men were men and ladies weren't. Because of overcrowding, a rule was established that barred females from teeing off after 9:00 a.m. and before 3:00 p.m. on Saturdays and Sundays.

Needless to say, it didn't take very long before several highly incensed lady golfers attacked the validity of the rule in court. "It's pure discrimination," they protested. "As women we've got a constitutional right to life, liberty and the pursuit of golf balls like any man. And to prohibit us from doing so on weekends is absolutely in violation of our rights."

"That's not so," retorted an embattled city official. "The rule is strictly a safety measure with no discrimination intended. With the overcrowding on weekends, flying golf balls on the links present a real danger that's magnified by the congestion caused by women who play very slowly. In fact, many of the women who come out don't even know how to hold a caddy."

IF YOU WERE THE JUDGE would you uphold the weekend ban on the lady golfers?

This is how the judge ruled: YES! The judge held that the rule prohibiting the ladies from the golf links on weekends was not discriminatory since it was not based upon sex as such but, rather, it was based upon the speed at which women are generally thought to play golf. Consequently, concluded the judge, as a safety measure, the rule was not an unreasonable restriction on the rights of women.

More strange lights seen in Dexter sky

DEXTER — There are continuing reports in the area of "strange sights" in the sky at night, and more reports of unidentified flying objects.

Strange lights were seen in the sky north and east of Dexter Wednesday night, and persons who saw them say they have been watching them for two or three weeks.

"They (the lights) are not there every night, but we have seen them often," one observer said.

The lights in the sky to the northeast were described as being a "small cluster of lights" which sometimes remain in the heavens for "two or three hours," then fade away or leave.

The light was continuous and not a twinkling, sparkling type of light, they said.

There have also been numerous reports of sightings in this area in the early morning hours, just before daybreak. Several persons have said they have watched these lights for several weeks.

"We see them every morning -- or almost every morning," one early-riser said.

The early morning lights are generally in the western sky over Dexter, they said. They described them as vari-colored.

And numerous persons in the Dexter area say they continue to see some "strange lights" at night, although not on a regular basis as they did several months ago. At that time the lights at Dexter and at Piedmont attracted national attention -- and were the subject of much study and speculation.

"There's something up there, all right," one person said. "Whether it is just a strange light, or a craft, or some other type of object, I certainly don't know. But it is different."

Singing youngsters to advertise evangelist

"The Born Again Ministry," a group of school-age youngsters from Charleston, will appear for three performances Saturday afternoon at the Kingsway Plaza Mall.

Purpose of the appearances, scheduled for 3:30, 5:00 and 7 p.m., will be to advertise the appearance of former United States Astronaut Col. James B. Irwin in Charleston Monday night. Col. Irwin will be at the Charleston High School football field at 7:30 p.m. His appearance will be under the auspices of the Charleston Ministerial Alliance and layment groups as part of phase 5 of "Key 73."

Col. Irwin's exploits in space, his visit to the moon as command module pilot of Apollo 15 in July of 1971 and his return to earth with the statement that "I felt God on the moon as I've never felt him before in my life" will be the subject of his address.

After resigning from NASA as an Astronaut, Col. Irwin became a fulltime evangelist.

Members of "The Born Again Ministry" have traveled throughout this area, performing for conventions, churches and other gatherings.

Dates set for Scouting night

DEXTER — The annual Boy Scout "school nights for scouting" will be held in Stoddard County schools again this year.

The annual school night for scouting in Dexter will be held the night of Sept. 27 at Central Elementary School, beginning at 7:30 p.m.

At Bernie, the event will also be held the night of Sept. 27 at the school cafeteria, beginning at 7:30.

At Bloomfield, the event is scheduled Sept. 25 in the elementary school cafeteria at 7:30, and at Richland, the event is also scheduled the night of Sept. 25 in the cafeteria.

The purpose of the annual event is to attract more boys to the scouting program, and parents are invited to participate. Boys who are not now in the scouting program and are between the ages of 8 and 14 are urged to be present and to bring their parents, according to Brad Dehn, area scout executive.

The various scout leaders, scoutmasters and others will be present at each of the meetings to explain the scouting program and its benefits to the boy.

The events throughout the county always attract a large crowd of interested boys and their parents and represent the main activity in attracting new boys into the scouting program.

MALDEN — Over 500 employees of the Federal Mogul plant in Malden have walked out on strike after rejecting the company's contract in a vote taken Wednesday.

Members of Local 43 of the International Molders and Allied Workers Union voted between noon and 1:30 p.m. rejecting the company's contract offer and voted overwhelmingly to walk out.

Federal Mogul management officials confirmed that a walkout was in progress by hourly production and maintenance employees, but declined to disclose the terms of the offer.

John Pieri, plant manager, said that, to his knowledge, no specific meeting has been scheduled between representatives of the company and the union to work out an agreement.

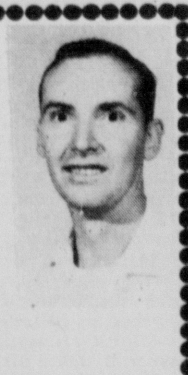

The plant manufactures automobile pistons and is located in Malden Industrial Park. Picketing at the plant began around 3 p.m. Wednesday.
